Beautifully Styled Studio Apartment

in Phuket, Phuket

A modernly designed and styled studio apartment located in the popular province of Phuket, ideal as a permanent home, somewhere to holiday, or would make the perfect rental investment.

Open plan design allows for a spacious and bright feel throughout the apartment, equipped with a fully fitted kitchen for self-catering, a lounging area, a designated area for sleeping along with a premium bathroom. High quality fixtures and appliances have been applied throughout. A communal pool is available for all residents within the condominium.

Phuket is a southern province in Thailand and is comprised of the country's largest island Phuket, along with 32 smaller islands found off its coast. Situated on the west coast of Thailand, it is home to some of the most popular beaches with white fine sands and clear waters, even gaining the status as one of the world's finest beach destinations - offering more than 30 amazing beaches to choose with Patong Beach, Kata, Karon and Kamala being the most popular. Travellers searching for a more romantic scenery should head a little further north to unveil some of the hidden gems the island has to offer. Phuket also offers multiple high-end resorts, spas and restaurants, making it an ideal location to make a rental investment.
